

Cowboying on the Great Divide Spring and Fall

June 2nd -9th
September 15th - 22nd
2012

"The outside of a horse is good for the inside of a man." Spoken by Will Rogers, Winston Churchill, and Ronald Reagan, among many others and finer words were never spoken. Man's universal love of horses has taken man and horse into a world of incredibly diverse use. But, there's one area of the horse world that isn't mentioned enough and that's "cowboying," and that may be the best of them all.

"Cowboying on the Great Divide" is scheduled for this spring and fall hosted by the Bar W Guest Ranch. It's all about horses, cattle, great country, your cowboy and cowgirl compadres, and you!

1. You're invited to be part of a real special week. On Saturday, the Bar W Ranch picks you up at the airport and once settled at the ranch we'll have dinner and then a horse orientation. If there is a local rodeo we'll head on out to see it.
2. On Sunday be prepared to be in the saddle all day. We'll start by matching you up with the horse that'll suit you best for the coming week
  - Horsemanship, reading cattle, sorting, penning, and possibly some roping
  - Trail ride
  - Dinner at the ranch
3. Monday, Gathering and Moving Cattle at Horsethief Buttes
  - Load up the horses and head over East
  - Finding and gathering up all cattle
  - Dinner and overnight in tent camp
4. Tuesday, Gathering and Moving Cattle at Horsethief Buttes
  - Finding and gathering up all cattle
  - Dinner and overnight in tent camp
5. Wednesday, Moving the herd to camp corrals
  - Roping, branding, vaccinating
  - Dinner and overnight in tent camp
6. Thursday, Riding and Gathering Bulls and Bucking Stock
  - All day riding looking for bulls and possibly bucking stock for rodeos
  - Travel back to the Bar W Ranch
  - Shower (Whew!) and dinner at the ranch
7. Friday, Riding to the Canadian Border at Swisher Lake or to the top of the Krinklehorn territory - all day Wagon Ride and Barbecue at the Gazebo on Spencer Lake
8. Saturday, Departure mid morning
